

A NEW PERSPECTIVE FOR INSPIRED BUSINESS MEETINGS

*I*n today's challenging business climate, maintaining a competitive edge to attract new clients is imperative. Building strong customer relationships for the long term is even more crucial. In this region, only the Windsor Club offers a truly unique setting to entertain clients, connect with prospects, and motivate business associates while distinguishing your company's expertise in the art of professional business development.

Whether hosting a quiet, client lunch, new product presentation, management-team seminar or staff-training day, the Windsor Club's panoramic view, overlooking the Windsor/Detroit skylines, provides a refreshing, relaxed environment that will certainly create inspired thinking around the meeting table.

Every successful meeting depends on satisfying many different appetites with a wide range of food and beverage requirements. The Windsor Club's culinary team, guided by Chef Steven Lay, is one of the finest in the city, and highly experienced in creative menu-planning for meeting the demands of large and small groups, both for business and pleasure. From delightful hors d'oeuvres and exquisite entrees, to refreshing appetizers to perk up your session breaks, they make meetings special.

Hosting a company function at the Windsor Club provides exceptional value for your business, without the need for membership! But once you look into their Corporate Access program for key employees, reciprocal privileges with 130 private clubs worldwide, and impressive networking events held throughout the year, you'll quickly see the added value a low-cost membership offers.

Take advantage of the 'business-friendly' services and facilities offered by the Windsor Club and the professional, management-team led by General Manager, Agnes Stainton. Call or email to arrange a tour, discuss a future meeting, or request assistance with your planning details. Rest assured, the Windsor Club will bring a new perspective to all your business functions.

Michael Thomas

519.258.1465

windsorclub.com
winclub@mnsi.net

